UP TO 500,000 FAXES PER DAY

A segment of your customers may prefer to be contacted by fax and will give you their fax number. This can help you manage your customer communications cost-efficiently and effectively.

- Customers recognize the immediacy of the communication and will actively decide whether to respond or not.
- Communication reinforces the relationship.
- Easy for customers to opt-out should they chose to at a later time.

Our automated outbound fax communications lets you customize your messages, schedule delivery and monitor results.
